After last night's deployment the state conservation facet looks a lot cleaner, but highlight some issues with the lists:

- The TAS list looks really problematic to me, esp the * and missing values compared to the source data https://lists.ala.org.au/speciesListItem/list/dr654?fq=kvp+status%3A*&q=&max=10 compared to the source data
- Those Endangered etc values should be mapped to just "Endangered"
- Spelling error in Vulnernable

- Basically most states are attempting to match to the IUCN terms, see here: <https://www.iucnredlist.org/#:~:text=It%20divides%20species%20into%20nine,in%20the%20Wild%20and%20Extinct>. It divides species into nine categories: Not Evaluated, Data Deficient, Least Concern, Near Threatened, Vulnerable, Endangered, Critically Endangered, Extinct in the Wild and Extinct.

Sometimes it is unavoidable eg WA's categories, but we should do as best we can to map to these categories.

Cheers

Peggy
